Beschreibung der Tätigkeit
We Love Sousse develops programmes that aim to meet the needs of people affected by social, economic, and even cultural challenges. Alongside its cultural activities, We Love Sousse is also committed to environmental and humanitarian initiatives, contributing to the well-being of the local community.

The volunteering mission at We Love Sousse gives participants an active role in the development of social and cultural projects in Tunisia. The selected volunteer will be involved in project coordination, strategic monitoring and research, and field support through the association's various activities.

This mission offers a truly rewarding experience, allowing volunteers not only to contribute directly to the implementation of local initiatives but also to develop skills in project management, communication, and teamwork within a dynamic intercultural environment.

Weitere Informationen
Accommodation will be provided for volunteers in shared rooms (2 people per room).
