Description de l'organisation

HUU (Armenian Volunteer Exchange Network) is a nonprofit organization that promotes voluntary service and non-formal education through international work camps, 12 long-term ESC projects, and youth exchanges. Founded in 1965, HUU empowers young people to engage in community development, cultural exchange, and social inclusion both in Armenia and abroad.

Description de l'activité

The volunteer will organize and lead leisure activities, informal language lessons, homework assistance, and creative workshops to develop children's talents. They will play an important role in introducing the children to foreign cultures, promoting tolerance, and helping prepare them for independent life. Volunteers will be actively involved in the children's daily routines, enriching their experiences through games, cultural exchanges, and educational support.

Informations complémentaires

The volunteer will be provided with free accommodation in a dormitory in Yerevan, located within reasonable distance from the HUU office. The volunteers will stay in twin rooms (2 people per room) and the dormitory will be equipped with basic furniture and kitchen facilities.

The volunteer will receive a monthly allowance for food, transport and other expenses. The volunteer will benefit from language support and mentorship throughout the project. In addition to their regular project activities, HUU also organizes a variety of cultural and social events for volunteers. These may include visits to museums, ballet and opera performances, as well as excursions to explore areas outside the capital.

Profil des volontaires recherché

We are looking for responsible, creative, and highly motivated volunteers who enjoy working with children aged 5–15, especially those from disadvantaged backgrounds. Volunteers should bring fresh ideas, be full of initiative, and be ready to organize educational and leisure activities. Good English is essential for communication and integration into the team.
