Descrizione dell'organizzazione

HUU (Armenian Volunteer Exchange Network) is a nonprofit organization that promotes voluntary service and non-formal education through international work camps, 12 long-term ESC projects, and youth exchanges. Founded in 1965, HUU empowers young people to engage in community development, cultural exchange, and social inclusion both in Armenia and abroad.

Descrizione dell'attività

The volunteer will assist in arts workshops, help organize cultural and recreational activities, support foreign language teaching, and present their own culture to the children through music, dance, and games. They will help organize exhibitions of children's art, sports competitions, and thematic events. The role also involves assisting teachers, preparing promotional materials, and searching for international partners and donors. Volunteers will receive Armenian language training twice a week during the first half of their ESC service.

Ulteriori informazioni

The volunteer will be provided with free accommodation in a dormitory in Yerevan, located within reasonable distance from the HUU office. The volunteers will stay in twin rooms (2 people per room) and the dormitory will be equipped with basic furniture and kitchen facilities.

The volunteer will receive a monthly allowance for food, transport and other expenses.

The volunteer will benefit from language support and mentorship throughout the project. In addition to their regular project activities, HUU also organizes a variety of cultural and social events for volunteers. These may include visits to museums, ballet and opera performances, as well as excursions to explore areas outside the capital.

Profilo ricercato del(la) volontario/a

We are looking for active, communicative, and creative volunteers who are eager to work with children with visual impairments. Volunteers should have good English writing and communication skills, be flexible, and willing to bring new ideas for workshops, cultural activities, and educational support.
