Beschreibung der Organisation

HUU (Armenian Volunteer Exchange Network) is a nonprofit organization that promotes voluntary service and non-formal education through international work camps, 12 long-term ESC projects, and youth exchanges. Founded in 1965, HUU empowers young people to engage in community development, cultural exchange, and social inclusion both in Armenia and abroad.

Beschreibung der Tätigkeit

The volunteer will visit and spend time with children receiving treatment, organizing games, arts and crafts competitions, and entertainment programs. They will help plan and implement charitable events, promote the foundation's work internationally, and write articles about activities. Volunteers may also help set up game rooms in the hospital and organize group activities, concerts, and creative workshops. The role combines direct work with children and administrative experience in event organization and communication.

Weitere Informationen

The volunteer will be provided with free accommodation in a dormitory in Yerevan, located within reasonable distance from the HUU office. The volunteers will stay in twin rooms (2 people per room) and the dormitory will be equipped with basic furniture and kitchen facilities.

The volunteer will receive a monthly allowance for food, transport and other expenses.

The volunteer will benefit from language support and mentorship throughout the project. In addition to their regular project activities, HUU also organizes a variety of cultural and social events for volunteers. These may include visits to museums, ballet and opera performances, as well as excursions to explore areas outside the capital.

Gewünschtes Freiwilligenprofil

We are looking for active, communicative, and creative volunteers ready to work closely with children undergoing medical treatment. Volunteers should be able to organize engaging activities, support hospital staff, and contribute to charitable events. Good English communication and writing skills are important for promoting activities and liaising with partners.
